To Sheboygan Sun Advertisers, Readers, and Supporters,

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we will be suspending publishing of The Sheboygan Sun, effective immediately. We will not publish our March 26th issue and will suspend our operations for the next 5 weeks, with a tentative restart on Monday, April 27th, to work on the May 7th issue.

We apologize for the inconvenience. Needless to say, we are all being affected in unprecedented ways by the events surrounding COVID-19.

We very much appreciate your business and support of The Sun, and look forward to continuing to serve you in the future. Best wishes for the health, safety, and welfare of our customers and staff during this challenging time.

Sincerely,
Tony Humski
General Manager
